

Educational Content & No Investment Advice Disclaimer

AI Trade Flow — Advanced Education and Trading

Effective Date: [DATE] · Last Updated: [DATE]

1. Education Only

Everything provided through AI Trade Flow — courses, livestream trading rooms, professional speaker sessions, group strategy rooms, community chat, leaderboards, sample data, and software tools (together, the "Content") — is provided for general educational and informational purposes only.

2. Not Investment Advice

The Content is not, and should not be treated as, investment advice, financial advice, trading advice, legal advice, tax advice, or a recommendation to buy, sell, hold, or leverage any digital asset, security, future, or other instrument. No piece of Content is tailored to your personal financial situation, objectives, experience, or risk tolerance.

3. No Professional Relationship

AI Trade Flow LLC is not registered as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, commodity trading advisor, or futures commission merchant with the SEC, CFTC, FINRA, NFA, or any other regulator, and nothing in the Services is intended to require such registration. Your membership creates no advisory, fiduciary, attorney-client, or accountant-client relationship with AI Trade Flow, its employees, its instructors, or its guest speakers.

4. Speakers and Community Members Speak for Themselves

Opinions expressed by instructors, guest speakers, livestream hosts, leaderboard traders, and community members are their own. They may hold positions in assets they discuss. AI Trade Flow does not verify, endorse, or adopt any member's or speaker's statements, strategies, or results.

5. Following Other Traders Is Still Trading

Features that let you review or follow top trader accounts are informational. If you choose to mirror or take inspiration from another member's activity, you do so in your own account, at your own direction, and at your own risk. Another trader's win rate or history is no assurance of their — or your — future results.

6. No Guarantees; Past Performance

We make no representation that any member has achieved or will achieve results similar to any Content, testimonial, sample chart, or leaderboard entry. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Hypothetical or sample performance figures have inherent limitations and do not reflect actual trading in your account.

7. Do Your Own Diligence

Before making any trading decision, you should conduct your own research, assess your own finances, and consult a licensed financial adviser, attorney, or tax professional as appropriate. If you cannot afford to lose the funds in your linked account, do not trade them.

8. Acceptance

By using the Services, you acknowledge this Disclaimer and agree that AI Trade Flow bears no liability for decisions you make based on the Content. This Disclaimer works together with our Terms of Service and Risk Disclosure Statement.
